Bond, Bond, a Storm!
Filming on location and need fencing or crowd protection products? TPA can help.

It's a Wrap
We work with many of the leading film production companies providing specialist access solutions for the majority of the Harry Potter movies.

The Name's T... TPA!
Our portable roadways have featured on many film sets including the 007 James Bond movies.

TPA have the knowledge and experience to provide effective access solutions in order to ensure that your filming runs to schedule.

Our experienced Field Sales Engineers will work closely with location and production managers to provide the most appropriate ground protection products in order to ensure the smooth movement of people, equipment and vehicles either around the site or broadcasting location.

From Harry Potter to James Bond, Location Managers across the UK have come to trust our expertise.

TPA are proud to be a sponsor of the Guild of Location Managers. We look forward to continuing our working relationship with them.

Guild of Location Managers

SPONSOR

TPA Film & TV projects include:

- Hard standing areas - for catering vehicles, make-up trailers and generators.
- Pad configurations - to create temporary car parks, welfare compounds and communal areas.
- Stabilising surfaces - for outriggers on cranes for camera work at height, including crane-boom and camera routes.
- Access to remote sites - and areas in need of protection, including forests, beaches, heritage sites, National Trust properties and stately homes.
- Walkways - to ensure actors, costumes and props remain clean on the journey from make-up to film set.

TPA Film & TV clients include:

- The Harry Potter Films
- James Bond
- BBC's Doctor Who
- British Academy of Film and Television Arts (BAFTA)
